

Green Screen Plant Species Catalogue

Pyracantha 'Dart's Red' - Firethorn. Bright red non-toxic berries. Creamy-white flowers in spring. Fire-blight resistant.

ECO - Consists of seven different native plants. Each plant has been carefully selected to enhance biodiversity.

Elaeagnus ebbingei - Elaeagnus, also known as Silverberry, is an evergreen shrub with large oval-shaped leaves. Elaeagnus is a wind- and salt-resistant plant.

Green Sphere Green Screens

Carpinus betulus - Hornbeam. Double-serrated edge leaves, dark green in summer, brown in winter.

Euonymus Dart's Blanket - Semi-evergreen. Deciduous depending on climatic conditions. Yellow-green, deep bronze or purple red in winter.

Hedera helix 'Glacier' - A strong evergreen ivy with grey-green leaves, narrow white edges and silver-grey inner.

Green Sphere Green Screens

Hedera helix 'Goldchild' - Evergreen ivy with compact growth, grey-green leaves with golden edges.

Hedera helix 'Green Ripple' - Medium-growing evergreen ivy with branches of denselyclustered dark green leaves.

Hedera helix 'White Ripple' - Medium-growing evergreen ivy with grey-green leaves and a silver-white margin.

Green Sphere Green Screens

Hedera helix 'Woerner' - Hardy dark green evergreen ivy with varying leaf shape.

Hedera hibernica - Large glossy leaves with deeply lobed margin. Hardy, even in coastal conditions.